Eastern Maine Community College waives all or a portion of tuition charges for matriculated students who are Maine residents and document their membership or ancestry in a Native American Tribe or Nation.

Eligibility Criteria: To qualify for an EMCC Native American tuition waiver, the student must meet the following eligibility criteria:

1. Tribal Membership or Ancestry: The student must be included on the current tribal census or have at least one parent or grandparent included on the current tribal census of the Aroostook Band of Micmac, the Houlton Band of Maliseet, the Passamaquoddy Tribe, the Penobscot Nation; or a state, a federal, or a provincial North American Indian Tribe, or held a band number of the Maliseet or Micmac Tribes.
2. Maine Residency: The student must be a resident of the State of Maine 12 months prior to enrollment at EMCC (qualification for in-state tuition charges).
3. Enrollment: The student must be accepted into a degree or certificate program and enrolled in credit courses which are part of their academic program at EMCC. The student must remain in good academic standing as defined by the College and maintain Satisfactory Academic Progress as defined by Title IV Federal Student Aid regulations.
4. Tuition Waiver Application: The student must complete and submit an “EMCC Native American Tuition Waiver” to the EMCC Student Aid Office. Once student eligibility is established, re-application for the tuition waiver is not necessary.
5. Student Aid Application: Applicants for the Native American Waiver must complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) annually as soon as possible after January 1st and provide the documents required for determining aid eligibility.
6. Applicants must meet the general eligibility requirements for receiving Federal student aid.

Waiver Amount: The tuition waiver is equal to the amount of in-state tuition charged to the student in a semester less any Federal or state need-based grants or scholarships for which the student qualifies. Charges other than tuition are not waived.

Duration of Eligibility: Eligibility for the waiver ends after the student has earned one degree or one certificate or after the student has attempted 90 credits at EMCC, regardless of whether or not the student has earned a credential.

Transferring: Students transferring between Maine’s community colleges must reapply and reestablish eligibility for the tuition waiver at their new college.
